1. INTRODUCTION

In 2016, the Sport Commission of the International Lifesaving Federation Europe (ILSE) separated the contents that addresses the European Lifesaving Championships (ELC) from the content that addresses the rules, procedures and standards for lifesaving sport. This resulted in two publications: A European Lifesaving Championships Handbook and an ILSE Competition Rulebook.

This Handbook contains information specific to any European Lifesaving Championships (ELC) to be held from 2024 onwards. This Handbook should be consulted in conjunction with the 2023 (published in 2023 for use in 2024) edition of the ILS Competition Rulebook and any amending and/or clarification Bulletins and Circulars. Additional information about the ELC may be found at <https://europe.ilsf.org/>

- d) A competitor is permitted to compete for a National Team from one country and for a Club Team from another country or federation at the same EYLC year.
- e) It is the responsibility of a NLF to endorse their participants in EYLC. If this endorsement is not provided upon request, the ILSE EMC reserves the right to undertake any required measure to ensure the eligibility of competitors to participate.
- f) The ILSE has age requirements to be eligible to compete in EYLC. In this regard, the ILSE follows the International Olympic Committee (IOC) guidelines for determining the age of competitors in EYLC. In short, a competitor’s age is determined by how old he or she is as at December 31 of the year in which they are participating in the EYLC.

Should the Full Member NLF not compete, the nation may be represented by competitors of an Associate or Corresponding NLF, but only if the Full Member NLF provides written approval to ILSE.
 - Have been members of their team’s NLF for a continuous period of at least 90 days prior to the first day of the EYLC – regardless of which competition is scheduled first.

Not Eligible	Competitors who turn 14 or 19 in 2024.

- d) A competitor who is a citizen of more than one nation must choose which one to represent in National Teams EYLC. The competitor shall then fall under the exclusive jurisdiction of that nation’s ILSE Full Member.

- e) The ILSE Full Members shall provide an endorsement declaring that their national team members are bona fide members; and provide proof of eligibility, i.e., copy of the passport or other citizenship document for each member of the national team.
- f) Composition of a team: A team consists of competitors and team officials:
